Bohemians Help To Swell The Frank Gun Fund

About Two Hundred Dollars Will Be Handled Over To Patriotic Fund

The machine gun fund is progressing favorably. A meeting was held in the schoolhouse last Sunday so that the committee might report to the citizens. About $1000 had already been collected. The secretary, Mr. Donkin, was instructed to forward the $872 to the receiver-general of Canada through the Union Bank.

It was also unanimously carried "That as the Minister of Militia, in his telegram, had allowed us to choose which unit the gun would be placed with, it is our wish that if the gun is not urgently needed at the front with the 31st Battalion, that we present the gun to the machine gun section, recruited at Pincher in the 13th C.M.R., as we are very largely represented in that section."

Then it was decided in the regular order, "That all monies raised over the amount necessary for the purchase of the gun be donated to the Patriotic Fund of Southern Alberta."

The meeting was presided over by Mr. J. R. McDonald.

In this way Frank has shown his patriotism, not the tin-can kind, but that which means sacrifice.

The secretary has forwarded to the Receiver General the $872.00 for the gun, and has received the following receipt:

"Union Bank of Canada
Bellevue, Alberta,
July 6, 1915.

R. E. Donkin,

Secretary Frank Gun Fund.

Dear Sir: I beg to acknowledge receipt of the sum of $872, which amount we have credited through our Ottawa, Ontario, branch, to the credit of the Receiver General, for the purpose of purchasing one machine gun through the Minister of Militia.

Yours truly,
J. M. WINDSOR, Manager.

Collection from Patriotic Meeting at Blairmore... $4.00

On Saturday last, Frank Blaier, Frank Blaier, $10.00 to the Red Cross Fund.

A total of $48.45 was received, just a little short of the $50.00 we account for; but there is more to come, and we may possibly be over-reached yet.

In the loan amount we have $22.35 and, subtracting the remaining sum of $10.00, we have $12.00 all in all.

So far, of this amount, $10.00 has already been forwarded to the headquarters of the British Red Cross Fund.

The sale of the house and lot, donated to the Red Cross by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McDonald, has been turned over to the Fund. Of this $10,000 has been forwarded towards the purchase of medicinal supplies.

Very-picking has commenced, and several parties took advantage of the fine weather on Monday and returned with a beginning.

Mr. McDaniel, of Connaught, and Mr. McIvor, of Lethbridge, were among those who came to the annual service day. Service at 2:30 p.m. in the Presbyterian church.

Don't forget to come to the annual service day this year, Saturday, July 21, 1915.

Mr. Patrick, of Calaway, passed through on his way to California via Seattle.

Although he carried 5000 pounds weight

he got through the mud alright.

Mr. and Mrs. Irakale, in the picnic and dance at Mrs. McLaren's in the Pineywood on the 1st, also enjoyed a a few days with friends in that vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad, of Connaught, who have been spending the week among old friends in Cowley, has gone to Pincher Creek for a short time before returning to Conrad.

The Orangemen will hold their annual planning meeting and picnic to resume home after their vacation.

Rev. Mr. Chalmers and D. P. McIvor were present at their vacation with

Mr. Longmuir a week for the whiskey ring. Both Mr. Chalmers and Mr. McIvor responded to his talk and assured him that the ring was not to be blamed for his bad luck. His idol was shattered every time he went to Lethbridge and his fellowes will decide they are on the wrong side by end of the campaign.

But how else could it be? Everyone

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES

Silage Substitute

On Small Farms Root Crops May be Used as a Substitute

On large farms, some feed is provided in the form of ensilage. On smaller farms, or where there is no silo, root crops, such as mangolds, rutabagas, turnips, etc., may be raised with profit as a substitute. Silage is produced almost entirely with machine labor. Roots require a good deal of labor, plus time, fuel or extra expenses for machinery.

Ten tons of roots per acre—about the same as can be grown in a field which will yield 25 bushels of corn to the acre is not a profitable crop, but 20, or even 25 tons may easily be secured under good management, and with profit.

Experience shows that a definite system of cropping could be arranged so that the land would be in a root crop a year or more ahead. Heavy manuring, followed by a crop of heavy manure, followed by a root crop, will enrich the soil, destroy weeds, and leave the soil in good shape for a root crop.

Roots, as a rule, are the best roots to grow. They should be planted in rows from 2 feet to 30 inches apart, to allow for cultivation with a harrow, and to prevent the plants of one species being all crowded together.

The seed should be planted about one-half inch deep, and will germinate in 10 days. Roots can be cultivated with a harrow, and will grow well in a root crop position, will enrich the soil, destroy weeds, and leave the soil in good shape for a root crop.

Twenty tons of roots will furnish 100 pounds of roots per day for 10 cows for 200 days. Roots are not only valuable for dairy cows, but are also valuable for young stock and brood sows.

"Nonetheless, my boy," responded his father, "you have made a good woman. Maude's a nice girl, with a little money, and plenty of good common sense. What more could you want?"

"Oh, yes, I admit that," replied junior. "But it's all very fine for you to talk, father. You married my mother, but I'm marrying a total stranger."

Commerce after the War

British Manufacturers Are Making a Strong Bid for Trade Diverted From Germany

The sooner the war comes to an end the sooner will the process of turning diverted commercial and industrial energy into the old channels, and the more rapidly will it develop. It will take years to reach any kind of permanent commercial situation, but it is to begin laying plans for capturing as much of it as may be possible.

To Make Investigation Into Oil Companies

For some time past the Attorney General has been making a general preliminary investigation into the affairs and methods of several oil companies. This investigation has brought sufficient irregularities to the surface to justify the Government in appointing a commission to make a full and complete enquiry into these matters, under the Act respecting oil and gas production. The consequence is that Judge Carpenter of the District Court has been appointed a commissioner under that Act with power to enquire into and concerning the promotion, incorporation, management and operation of the various companies and stock exchanges in the Province, including the expenses of management, investment of funds, nature of properties or claims held, the manner and cost of sale or disposal of stock and other allied questions.

Frank Ford, Esq., K.C., of Edmonton, has been appointed by the Government as advisory counsel to the commission, an appointment which in itself, should be sufficient guarantee of the Government's desire to make the enquiry thorough.

We understand it is the wish of the Government that all assistance be given by the public to that end, and so that we may be able to purge this valuable industry from wrong-doing and improper manipulation, we are authorized to say that the Attorney General will be glad to receive any and all information which will assist him and further the objects of the commission. All such information should be sent direct to the Attorney General's Department. The commission will meet at Calgary on July 15th instant and at Edmonton at a later date to be announced.

Do It Now

The Department of Agriculture begs to advise the farmers of the province that in view of the large increase in the acreage seeded to grain and the promising crop conditions, there is likely to be a very great demand this season for harvest help and as there are a large number of unemployed workmen in our towns at the present time it would be well to engage such help as may be needed at the earliest possible moment.

Hitherto it has been the policy of the railway companies to induce westward immigration for harvest help, but this year it may be assumed that no such movement will be possible, as conditions in the Eastern Provinces are very similar to those in the West with very little or no immigration from Europe.

At the present time there are a certain number of unemployed in Alberta. There are now however, 100,000 men under arms, and recruiting is progressing steadily. Therefore, it is safe to conclude that upward of 50,000 men will have been withdrawn. It is also expected that railway and municipal work will rapidly employ many of the present unemployed, so there is likely to be a scarcity of help for harvest work, if arrangements are not made at once to secure the necessary assistance.

"Our Tipperary"

The Times is indebted to Mrs. J. Ward, of St. Paul, Neb., for the following parody on Tipperary. Mrs. Ward is much interested in seeing Alberta go dry and awaits with anxiety the result of the vote on July 21st.

It's been a long way to prohibition,
It's been a long way to go;
To the fairest land we know,
It's good-by local option,
High license we'll not spare;
It's been a long, long way to prohibition,
But we're almost there,

It's a short way to prohibition,
It's the right way to go;
It's a sure way to bring salvation
To the greatest land I know,
Let's all stick together,
Let this be our cry,

It's a short, short way to prohibition,
And our province will go dry.
It's a bright day for prohibition,
It's a safe way to go;
It's the right time for prohibition
In the greatest province I know,

BLAIRMORE ALBERTA

Tipperary Up-to-date

(By Edna Bacon)

With his mighty army rode out Kaiser Bill one day:

"Off we go to Paris," you could hear his soldiers say;

Also they were singing songs about the River Rhine;

Till Billy stopped their music and it changed into a waltz;

It's a long way to get to Paris;

It's a hard way to go,

It's a long way to get to Paris,

It's the toughest job I know,

Who thought of little Belgium?

Fighting square by square;

It's a long, long way to get to Paris—

We'll never get there.

Kaiser Billy curled his lip and then he stroked his chin;

Set his war machine a-rolling with an awful din;

"Smash the cheeky British army," His command was read,

But French's "little army" knocked the Kaiser on the head;

It's a long way to get to Calais,

It's a hard way to go,

Through shell and blinding snow;

Good-bye thoughts of Paris,

Farewell, looting there,

It's a long, long way to get to Calais,

We'll never get there.

Kaiser Billy stopped to think, and then he gave a shout—

"We'll set out for Warsaw, we can see the Russians rout."

Off he went with both his sons to shoot the Russian bear,

But they made him lose his motor,

while his sons took to the air;

It's a long way to get to Warsaw,

It's a long way to go,

Good-bye easy journey,

Farewell, Warsaw Bear,

It's a long, long way to get to Warsaw,

We'll never get there.

Kaiser Bill is in a pickle what he has to do,

So they sent their navy forth on sea with shimmering sheen,

But the Lion shelled poor Blucher, and it's now a submarine;

It's a long way back to safety,

It's a long way to go,

It's a long sail now to safety,

And the hardest task I know,

Good-bye Prussian Kaiser!

Farewell Burglar Fair!

It's a long, long way to St. Helena,

They'll surely go there.

Kaiser Billy starts to rock upon his shakin' throne;

Kaiser Billy's charming son just now begins to groan;

So we'll send them for a rest across the ocean blue—

Where Bonaparte, their patron, had a home and rested too.

It's a long way to St. Helena,

It's a long way to go,

It's the safest spot we know,

Good-bye Prussian Kaiser!

Farewell Burglar Fair!

It's a long, long way to St. Helena,

They'll surely go there.

Prohibition

(By C. J. Klauer, in "America")

Our lovable critis in Scotland said that "Bibbing may be one of the vices increased by prohibition." Prohibition breeds here, like everywhere else, hypocrites, sneaks, liars, "dope fiends," "boot leggers" and drunkards. The increase of this crowd is the punishment we justly deserve for having attempted to "improve" the divine law that allows the "intoxicating" ale and liquor. The time will come sooner or later when the people of West Virginia will shake off the Turkish yoke of prohibition, stand for licensed and properly conducted saloons, instead of for "unlicensed saloons" which are veritable hell-holes. Not drink, but the abuse of drink, causes a number of evils. Men must be blind great for the abuse. To make things responsible for evils that are in reality caused by men themselves, is rank idiocy!

Frank Happenings

Mrs. A. Pozzi and children spent Wednesday with friends at Hillcrest.

Mrs. T. Davies arrived home from Calgary on Saturday evening last, where she had been visiting friends.

J. Kiefer and R. Griffiths had orders to report for work at Macleod, for which place they left on Tuesday morning.

Mesdames W. H. Hilton and J. H. Gibson left for Calgary on Sunday morning and will visit Sarcey Camp before returning home.

If any of our neighboring camps are going to provide a gun for our fighters it is time they got busy. "Bum" Frank led off as usual.

Rev. W. T. Young went to Coleman on Thursday to spend the day with the Lethbridge picnickers and take part in the tennis game with Lethbridge.

Fred Chappell and Harry Fisher, of Blairmore, were visitors here on Wednesday, returning from their fishing trip with a load of "Jack Sharps."

J. C. Waters, president of the trades and labor congress of Canada, was a visitor here on Tuesday, accompanied by international board member Deane Kees.

Mr. Young will speak on the proposed liquor act in the Methodist church on Sunday evening next, July 11th, and will be prepared to answer any question that may be asked on the subject. Everyone cordially invited.

On Sunday, July 4th, a unique service was held in the Methodist church here. July the 6th is the day that all Bohemians keep who believe that each man has a right to freedom of thought along religious lines. It is the anniversary of "Master" John Huss martyrdom. This year being the 500th anniversary.

THE ENTERPRISE, BLAIRMORE, ALBERTA.

deaths from the same cause in the cities of "wet" Kentucky was only 3.2 per 100,000 population. Is it reasonable to force 100,000 persons on the "water wagon" because five of them ran themselves through the abuse of alcoholic liquors? If it is, sound logic demands that we first prohibit the use of milk and water as beverages. For Dr. Joseph M. Mathews, formerly president of the Kentucky Board of Health, stated recently that "for every death produced by whisky, there have been 1,000 deaths produced by drinking impure milk, and for every single death produced by whisky there have been 5,000 deaths from impure milk and water" (quoted by J. Martz in chapter IX of his book). This statement is confirmed by United States "Mortality Statistics for 1911." The death rate from typhoid fever alone, which is caused by impure water, exceeded four times the death rate from alcoholism.

Mannington is in a "dry" State, indeed. We are supposed to have "the most drastic prohibition law." But to judge from the number of "jolly fellows" who stagger along the streets of our cities, particularly on Saturdays, there are no signs of an excessive drought hereabouts. Of course, a man cannot buy a glass of beer in a decent place, neither can he have it imported from another State. But if he visits one of our "seated castles," owns the necessary coin, he can get all the "freedom" he wants. The saloon-keepers, like me, are not. Tom Cunningham, Fred Blue, will die of the blues long before he succeeds in enforcing our "drastic prohibition law." The stupidity of our "dry" agitators reached its climax when they thought that they could "wipe out men's appetites" for alcohol by drinks simply by "rolling up" a large vote for the prohibition amendment. You can vote a State "dry," but you can not vote the people of a State "dry."

Our critic guessed well when he said that "Bibbing may be one of the vices increased by prohibition." Prohibition breeds here, like everywhere else, hypocrites, sneaks, liars, "dope fiends," "boot leggers" and drunkards. The increase of this crowd is the punishment we justly deserve for having attempted to "improve" the divine law that allows the "intoxicating" ale and liquor. The time will come sooner or later when the people of West Virginia will shake off the Turkish yoke of prohibition, stand for licensed and properly conducted saloons, instead of for "unlicensed saloons" which are veritable hell-holes. Not drink, but the abuse of drink, causes a number of evils. Men must be blind great for the abuse. To make things responsible for evils that are in reality caused by men themselves, is rank idiocy!

The attitude of our Bohemian people to the machine gun should be that of Frank must be considered. They gave to man, delighted with the chance to do so, and some who have been cut off work for some months and have families to care for would have given the last cent to it. In a peculiar moment at their meeting, one man suggested "that a copy of the subscription-list, when completed, be sent to the Emperor Francis Joseph, so that he may see our attitude." The most of our immigrants from that country are naturalized, therefore Canadians. Our duty now is to do our best and help them to develop into the best kind of Canadian citizens, having in them the characteristics of their hero, John Hus.

An interesting feature of the service was the rendering in Bohemian of two sacred songs, which were well sung by a choir of nine young people of the town. This part of the service has been highly praised.

A very sad accident occurred here on Friday evening, when the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chappell, junior, had the misfortune to put a knife through the sight of one of her eyes. Bellevue Happenings

James Burke paid a business visit to Lethbridge this week.

Dave Morris spent a couple of days fishing at Daisy Creek.

Mrs. Mary and Katie Williams were visitors to Calgary during the week.

Mrs. James Naylor and Mrs. Steve Humble were at Calgary during the week.

Mrs. Kafoury, of Fernie, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Haddad, for a few days.

Saturday was pay-day at the mine, and business brightened somewhat.

Mrs. A. Bursey, who has been in the hospital for some time, returned home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolstenholme were at Calgary during the week, taking in the fair.

Quite a number of local sports took part in the baseball match at Blairmore on Sunday.

W. L. Phillips, president of District 18, of the United Mine Workers, was in Bellevue this week.

C. W. Johnston has been appointed enumerator for Bellevue district for the forthcoming election.

Mrs. McCheney, of Calgary, is spending a few days visiting in camp, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Christie.

The second instalment of "The Master Key" was shown in the Lyric theatre on Thursday night. It is certainly the best serial ever shown in The Pass, and everyone should see it.

A number of Bellevue people left on Sunday morning for Calgary, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hallworth, Fred Padgett and Dave Hutton. They intend staying for a week.

Arthur Williams was a Calgary visitor last week, where it is understood the difficulty of being transported over the slide to Blairmore has been surmounted by the purchase of a motor cycle.

Mrs. Watts-Goodwin and family left Bellevue this week for Calgary, where they will spend the summer, or until Mr. Goodwin, who is in training with the 12th Mounted Rifles, leaves for the front.

E. C. McDonald, druggist, went to Coleman on Monday night, where he was married to Miss Lizzie Niven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Niven, of Frank. The happy couple have taken up residence here.

On Monday evening the officers of Bellevue Lodge 118, of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, were duly installed by District Deputy M. K. Hunter, assisted by five other members of Coleman Lodge. The new officers are:

Noble Grand—Alan Hamilton;
Vice Grand—
Treasurer—
Recording Secretary—H. Bassas.

Conductor—O. Evans;
Chaplain—George Patterson,
R.S.S.—Noble McDonald;
L.S.S.—David Davidson;
R.S.N.G.—G. Weldon;
L.S.N.G.—W. Albertyn;

Inside Guard—W. Patterson;
Outside Guard—T. M. Burnett.

covery of the little one.

The Devil and Kaiser Bill

The devil was sad, the devil was mad;
As mad as the devil could be.

The plain truth to tell there was not in the land.

A soul just as angry as he.
He heard some bad news, he shook in his shoes.

As he contemplated his fate.
His chiefs gathered round, and on them
he frowned.

There's a fellow," said he, "who's a rival to me.

A chap they call Emperor Bill.

If everything's true between me and you,

I'm certainly due for a split.

He's king of them all, devils great, devils small;

Along side of him I'm a saint,
I know I am mad—that thought makes me sad,

I'm not in his class—no I ain't.

When he reaches here I'd very much fear

To put him down there with the mob.

I know mighty well he'd Prussianize hell

And then I'd be out of a job
And he cried like a kid, the devil did.

And said I'm sure in a fix

Be wealthy or poor, hell would be hell

sure,

When Charon rows him over the Styx."

The devil he sighed, the devil he cried

As he thought of losing his biz.

Mr., Mrs., or Miss, the moral is this:

When you lose the Kali is dead,

Don't right them and there are a thanksgiving prayer.

Just pray for the devil instead.

When you have trouble with your stomach or chronic constipation, don't imagine that your case is beyond help just because your doctor doesn't seem to relief you. See Dr. George Steigle, Springfield, N. J., who has been troubled with my stomach. Every time I ate upset terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertising booklets came to me. After reading a few of his hints from his book, I was cured by Chamberlain's Tablets. I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three-fourths of a package of them and can eat almost everything that I want." For sale by all dealers.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

COAL mining rights of the Dominion, in the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories and the provinces, may be leased for a term of twenty years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not less than $100 shall be paid for each acre applied for.

In order to secure the lease, an application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent and the fee paid in full.

Each lease will be divided into sections, by sections, or legal subdivisions of sections, and in unreserved territory the trust company will furnish a map of the area.

Each lease will be granted for a period of twenty years, unless otherwise specified.

For a lease to be granted, the lessee must pay a fee of $2 which will be refunded if the rights are not available, but the lessee may be required to pay a fee of $100 if the rights are not available.

A royal commission will be paid for the amount of coal produced.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of State, Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to the Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

W. W. CORY

Deputy Minister of the Interior, advertisement will not be paid for—$300.

Guts and Rusts of Grain

It is estimated that the losses sustained from smut in Ontario grain crop amount to $2,700,000.00 in about two years, which occur in oats, wheat being the next greatest sufferer. To cope with this danger Bulletin 221 entitled "Control of Rust and Smut of Crops," prepared by J. E. Howitt and R. H. Stone, has been issued by the Ontario Department of Agriculture. This bulletin gives full details of the disease and its control which may apply for it. This very practical bulletin goes fully into the cause and cure of smut and rust, and gives full directions for storing and seed grain in order to avoid or lessen injury to grain crops from these causes. Practical farmers will have a valuable addition regarding relief from these two common grain troubles.

Silage for Horses

The following summary is presented by the Missouri station in stating in brief form the result of its observations and experiences in feeding silage to horses.

Corn silage is now being fed with success by a large number of horsemen to their animals, to all classes of horses and mules.

Corn silage should always be fed in combination with other feeds.

With the exception of its usefulness it is a cheap substitute for hay and adds variety and succulence to the ration.

Silage is not a success except in the hands of those who have had some experience in the drift of the animal.

Under no circumstances should spoiled silage, either moldy or rotten, be fed to horses or mules.

End of the War

Predicted That Germany Cannot Hold
Out Much Longer

The Germans are preparing another great battle, which will be the last.

This news from Dutch sources must come as a surprise to many. How, we may well ask, can the enemy afford to throw men into the fire, which encloses him? And another question that occurred to the student of the war is:

What is the German's last stand?

There is now no chance of their breaking the line of allied troops that opposes them, and the deadly troops that are now closing in around them.

I heard one optimist general say that it would not make any difference if the enemy was fighting outside Paris;

but I do not think that view, for the winning of territory, be it ever so little, means much to the morale of an army, and that the statement. The locality of battle matters little at present, as long as Paris and Armentières are not captured.

But the Germans are attacking, and that is the fact that does not mean they have recovered the initiative. They will never be able to do that;

but the other certainly is not done, and that is what is beginning to show that these repeat German offensives are the frantic dashes of a desperate nation against the bars of its prison.

I repeat that the end will come very suddenly. Another process like Neuve

Chapelle will bring the end.

That will be the last.

The Germans are

attacking, and that is the fact that does not mean they

have recovered the initiative. They will never be able to do that;

but the other certainly is not

ZAM-BUK AND OUTDOOR LIFE.

Every tennis or ball player, every swimmer, every canoeist, every man or woman who loves outdoor life and exercise, should keep a box of Zam-Buk

in their pockets.

Zam-Buk is a purely herbal preparation, which, as soon as applied to cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, blisters, etc.,

gives quickly beneficial results.

First, its antiseptic properties render the wound free from all danger from blood poisons. Next, its soothing power calms the nerves and relaxes

the tissue, and set up the wonderful processes of healing. Barbed wire scratches, insect bites, abrasions, etc.,

are easily treated, and Zam-Buk is a great aid in outdoor sports.

Some people imagine that a Ford car can do anything, even go through a rock mountain without requiring a tunnel. One of our local automobile attempted to make a short cut through Goat Mountain on Thursday evening, but the car stopped, and stopped hard, resting on its beam ends, the fenders warped, the dashboard bent to about 50 degrees with a huge boulder snugly holding it to

NATIONAL PROHIBITION

Of the Manufacture, Importation and Sale for Beverage Purposes of all Intoxicating Liquors is Canada's ultimate solution of the Drink Problem. And the various Prohibition movements, chief of which are Local Option and Provincial Prohibition, have this for their goal. Public sentiment is strongly in favor of the above solution. The only ever taken on this question occurred sixteen years ago. Even then six out of the then seven Provinces gave in.

Dominion-Wide Plebiscite

Favor of National Prohibition

a majority of 27 per cent of their total vote cast. Quebec Province alone polled an adverse majority. However, public sentiment against the liquor traffic since then has so increased even there that today 70 per cent of her parishes are Dry. And that too, under Local Option, which is but a stepping stone to the ultimate goal.

After the above plebiscite, following Quebec's adverse vote, it was not at that time considered that political parties had any influence on National Prohibition. And that in spite of the fact that they still retained a considerable not majority of the total vote of the whole Dominion in favor of national elimination of the liquor traffic; and in spite also of the fact that political parties have been returned to power due to gerrymandering of constituencies) and have continued in office backed up by a smaller majority of the total vote cast than the majority registered for Prohibition at that plebiscite.

And Why?

Manifestly because the moment any political party or any individual political candidate takes a stand in favor of Prohibition the liquor interests, both individually and as a body, work with all the resources at their command to defeat that party or that individual. And no one can reasonably blame them for so doing.

Not so the advocates of Prohibition! To them all too often the rank of the party whip sounds louder than any call of conscience or the dictates of their judgment. And so both political parties have refrained, and for good party reasons, from championing a cause that is manifestly favored by the majority of their electors.

Organized prohibition forces have thus been compelled temporarily to put in the back ground the question of National Prohibition and to accept and work with the task of suppressing the liquor traffic. But from that day to this an increasing tide of LOCAL OPTION and PROVINCIAL PROHIBITION has been sweeping over Canada from sea to sea and gathering from day to day such momentum that in the very near future National Prohibition will sweep from the whole Dominion the last vestige of the Liquor Traffic.

The Present Contest in Alberta is but an incident in that great movement. And yet it is somewhat different from any other contest. A couple of years ago the present Government of Alberta made a most astute party move. They passed the "Direct Legislation Act," embodying the principle of the Initiative and Referendum, and providing that a "number of electors may under certain conditions present to the Legislative Assembly a proposed Act"; and the conditions being complied with, the Assembly is under obligation to put upon the Statute books the legislation thus asked for. The Prohibition forces of this Province at once proceeded to make use of this Direct Legislation Act, and in harmony with its provisions have drawn up a Proposed Liquor Act which embodies as far as it is considered possible and practicable the principle of Provincial Prohibition; and the Government has in accordance with the provisions of the Direct Legislation Act asked the electors to express their verdict on this proposed Act on the 21st of July.

It is well, then, to remember that this is not a movement on the part of any political party. It is absolutely and entirely

Out of the Realm of Party Politics

Yet there are some members of both political parties of this Province who are personally taking an active part in this campaign in favor of the proposed "Act"; and we have been assured that a majority of the members of the present Assembly are in favor of the Act and will personally vote for its adoption on the 21st of July. But that does not make it a party measure or issue.

And it is Not a Church Movement Either.

Great credit is due the various organized religious bodies and to many of the religious leaders and teachers of all religious bodies operating in this Province for the present overwhelming conviction on the part of the general public that the

Liquor Traffic Must Go-and AT ONCE

But this organized movement is being conducted by the Temperance and Moral Reform League which embraces in its membership and active supporters CITIZENS of all political parties, of all religious beliefs, and indeed also very many of no church nor party affiliation. It is a
